Eleventh Grade Summer Reading 2019-2020

Showbie Reading and Writing – 11th grade CP American Literature Goal: Through the Summer Reading Assignment, students at Eden will be actively involved in reading, thinking, and writing.

Showbie: Showbie is a private social platform for educators to use as a homework and class work site. We will be using this site throughout the year for communication and collaboration. Social networking is increasingly used by young adults, and we want to teach students to use this tool in a safe and secure environment.

Requirements: The students will be reading two books this summer.

- The first assignment is a series of short stories, and the questions for them will be due on Friday, July, 13th, by 11:00 P.M. There are four stories and one question with two to three parts per story that must be answered. Responses must be at least 100 words for each part of a question and are worth 25 points each.
- The work for the second book, 1984 by George Orwell, is due on Friday, August 2nd, by 11:00 P.M. There are five questions that must be answered for this book. Responses must be at least 200 words and are worth 20 points each. NOTE: THERE WILL BE A TEST ON THIS NOVEL IN THE FIRST WEEK OF SCHOOL! BE FAMILIAR WITH CHARACTERS AND REVIEW ALL MAIN EVENTS.

Grading rubric for all posts:

Critical Thinking (8 points): Responses demonstrate thoughtful, careful engagement with the prompt or post, discussing important ideas, characters, etc.

Applications and Examples (8 points): Responses use examples from the book and from the student's own life, applying the reading to his/her own life.

Writing Standards(4 points): The writing is clear, concise, and easy to understand. Rules of grammar and mechanics are followed. Minimum length requirement is met.

Timeliness: Posts are submitted before midnight the due date. (-10% for each day late)

Total points: Short Stories: 100 points 1984: 100 points

Eleventh Grade Summer Reading 2019-2020

Signing Up: All 11th grade students must go to the website and sign up by June 6th!

Go to https://my.showbie.com/signup
Click the "I'm a student" button.
Enter the group code TR388. For your username, you may use anything you will remember. Create a password, and enter your name.
Click "sign up."

Preparing to Write: 1) Actually read the book. 2) Take notes to help you remember what you read and what is important to you. 3) Write with depth and insight. Don't just summarize the work you read. 4) Answer all parts of the questions. 5) Use proper grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation because these will be graded. 6) Don't be late turning your work in. There will be a 10% penalty per day for late work. 7) Below you will find an example post and response for the book To Kill A Mockingbird.

Posting: On the home page, click on Grade 11 English American Literature and all assignments for the summer should be listed. You should see five assignments posted for The Grapes of Wrath, and five assignments for 1984. To respond, tap an assignment. You will see the question posted. Tap the "+" button and SUBMIT YOUR RESPONSE AS A GOOGLE DOC. Hit "save"; then exit the box, and move on to the next question/assignment listed. NOTE: Do NOT post your response as a comment! All information must be put into a Google doc and uploaded. You will lose 5 points per assignment that is posted as a comment.

Sample Post for To Kill A Mockingbird:

Discussion Question: Discuss Jem and Scout's behavior as siblings: how do they treat each other and relate to each other? Use at least one specific example from the book to show your point (give a page number). Also, connect their relationship to your own family relationships: how is it similar and/or different?

John Doe's Post: Jem and Scout relate like most brothers and sisters. Because Jem is the oldest, he wants to be in charge and often tries to act more mature than he really is. For instance, on the first day of school, Jem instructs Scout not to bother him with any requests to play (page 16). He also boasts about not being afraid of the Radley Place. Scout sees through this, though, and often laughs at him for his arrogance. Despite their conflicts, the two are very close and do everything together. Scout believes Jem almost implicitly, accepting his description of Boo Radley even though he has never seen him. I can see myself in Jem; as the oldest, I want to be the leader of my siblings, and I want them to look up to me. It's easy to boast and tell stories when I'm trying to do this. However, because I'm a girl and I have girl siblings, I think we can relate more than Scout and Jem did; we easily share secrets and jokes.
